++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Generally cloudy, with occasional drizzle, but locally becoming brighter later.

Today:
Generally cloudy start with occasional drizzle, especially across the Peak District where there will also be hill fog. This afternoon some bright or sunny spells are likely to gradually develop, with perhaps Lincolnshire favoured leading to the highest temperatures here. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy at times, especially across the Peak District, but also some clear spells which combined with light winds will allow areas of mist, low cloud and fog to form. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
Generally cloudy and dull start. Through the day very warm sunny spells will develop, but there is also a chance of isolated heavy or thundery showers breaking out. Light winds. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Heavy rain clearing Monday, with sunshine and showers following. Tuesday and Wednesday showers or longer spells of rain, heavy at times, especially Tuesday. Feeling noticeably cooler throughout the period.
